4. Independence safeguards	4.1 Please describe the national independence requirements for the governing body and its members, and legal or regulatory requirements/provisions in place that safeguard their independence from the audit profession. Under the CPA Act, members of the governing body of CPAAOB are to exercise their authority independently (Article 35-2). In order to ensure this independence and to prevent undue influence from outside including the audit profession, the members may not participate in a resolution on a business related to themselves (Article 40(3)), and there are also provisions on the method of appointment (Article 37-2), guarantee of status (Article 37-4), service principles (Article 37-6), and remuneration (Article 37-7). Are employees of the Member covered by the same or separate set of independence requirements? <input type="checkbox"/> Same set of requirements <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Different set of requirements If there are separate independence requirements for employees, please describe:

	All employees are subject to the independence requirements of the National Public Service (NPS) Act and the NPS Ethics Act. Specific examples of independence requirements include the requirement to perform the duties fairly (Article 96(1) of the NPS Act and Article 3 of the NPS Ethics Act) and the prohibition of affiliation with and concurrent employment in private enterprise (Article 103(1) of the NPS Act). In addition, the CPAAOB secures prevention of conflicts of interest relating to the inspection activities by composing an inspection team, made up of inspectors who have not had any private commitment (such as working experience) to inspected firms. 4.2 Are there any additional safeguards in place that provide for the Member's overall independence from the audit profession? E.g. through the appointment process, specific Board actions, etc. <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No If yes, please describe:
5. Funding Arrangements	5.1 Describe the main funding arrangements of the Member, including the setting and approval of the budget: The FSA's budget including CPAAOB's expenses is funded by the national budget and is unaffected by any affiliates of the public accounting profession. 5.2 Is the funding free from undue influence by the profession? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Please describe with an appropriate level of detail the safeguards in place to prevent undue influence by the profession: The FSA's budget including CPAAOB's expenses is funded by the national budget and is unaffected by any affiliates of the public accounting profession.
6. Audit Market	6.1 Provide the number of audit firms subject to inspections. Include an indication of the number of public interest audits (PIEs) and other audits that fall under the Member's oversight or mandate. A total of 223 domestic audit firms and auditors undertake audits of listed companies as well as other PIE entities such as financial institutions, which are subject to JICPA quality control review. Among them, 128 audit firms conduct audits of listed companies and are registered as Listed Company Auditors under the Listed Company Auditor Registration System.

	In addition, 7 out of 103 notified foreign audit firms provide audit services to the companies listed on financial instruments exchange markets in Japan. 6.2 Please describe the sizes (in terms of revenue / number of listed entity clients / number of partners and audit staff / etc. – whichever measure is commonly used and available in your jurisdiction) and market shares of each of the largest audit firms in the Member's jurisdiction. The Big Four firms (Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, KPMG AZSA, EY ShinNihon and PwC Japan) audit about 58.1% of domestically listed companies on a company-count basis.
7. Inspection System	7.1 Does the Member have the responsibility for recurring inspections of audit firms undertaking audits of public interest entities (PIEs)? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <hr/> 7.2 Is this responsibility undertaken directly or through oversight of inspection conducted by another organization? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Directly <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Through Oversight If directly, please describe the responsibility, including the follow-up and reporting process, and the regulatory measures available to be taken as a result of inspections (if described in Question 12 Enforcement, please reference that section for details on such measures). If through oversight of another organization, please describe with an appropriate level of detail the other organization, its relation to the Member, its role, and the arrangements for oversight by the Member: The CPAAOB conducts inspections on audit firms, CPAs and the JICPA. As to inspections on audit firms, the CPAAOB takes into account the results of JICPA's quality control review as explained below. If the results of inspections show that the quality control review was not conducted properly, or CPAs/audit firms did not conform to laws, regulations and standards related to quality control of audits, etc., the CPAAOB Board will recommend that the Commissioner of the FSA take administrative actions and other measures necessary to ensure the proper operation of audit firms, CPAs and the JICPA. <hr/> 7.3 Please describe with an appropriate level of detail the requirements and practices regarding the frequency of inspections: The CPAAOB has conducted inspections on the large-sized audit firms annually, which is comprised of biennial full-scope inspection and follow-up inspection in the subsequent year. As to follow-up inspections, remedial measures are primarily examined through collection of reports, and on-site follow-up inspections may be conducted when necessary.

	On the mid-tier audit firms, the CPAAOB conducts regulatory inspection once every two years from mid-2025 in principle. Since the CPA Act requires the JICPA to review the status of the operation of audit and attestation services provided by its members, the JICPA established its bylaws to conduct its quality control review once every three years in principle. The JICPA is also required under the CPA Act to report the results of the quality control review to the CPAAOB periodically or as necessary. In practice, the CPAAOB obtains monthly reports from the JICPA. <hr/> 7.4 Does the Member have its own inspection staff, use reviewers from the professional body or sub-contract to third parties, independent contractors, etc. for the conduct of inspections? Please tick the boxes that apply: (multiple responses allowed) Note that there is no need to tick a box if non-employee reviewers are used very occasionally and are not a core staffing approach. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Employees of the Member <input type="checkbox"/> Professional body <input type="checkbox"/> Third Parties <input type="checkbox"/> Other Please explain below: Inspections of CPAAOB are exclusively conducted by its own staff.
